F. R. Moore, Raph Holbrook and W. H. Woods were appointed committee on credentials, and they reported all precincts except Lyon epresented.

On motion the chair appointed a ommittee on resolutions consisting of one delegate from each precinct. Following is the report of the committee, which was unani-

Resolved, That the Democrats of the county of Lawrence approve the call of the convention to meet at Louisville on June 25, 1895, to ominate candidates for the various State offices to be filled at the November election, 1895,

We re-endorse the principles de lared and adopted by the National Democratic Convention at Chicago in 1892, and point with pride to the results of the partial achievement of the ends set forth in that declar ation. We are encouraged by the good results following the passage of Democratic laws to press forward more vigorously than ever to the full accomplishment of the great principles of the Democratic

No administration since the foundation of our government has been put to a more severe test, or In more trying positions than the present administration, and we are proud of the patriotic and able manner in which it has faced and overcome the great difficulties.

Coming into power in 1893 the Democratic party found a most deplorable state of affairs-a bankrupt U. S. Treasury, a well-defined panic already deep-seated in the vitals of the country's business, and numerous extravagant contracts made by the Billion Dollar Congress, entailing enormous expenditures for many years of the future.

Cause after cause was removed by the Democratic party, and remedy after remedy applied; and now, looking back over the history of the whole affair, we see that the course was wise: that the full fury The Bethiehem Iron Company of of the inevitable storm was pre-Bethlehem, Pa., has increased the vented; that in consequence of the enforcement of our principles the country is now enjoying genuine prosperity of rapidly increasing volume.
